

The Institute for Teaching and Research on Women at TU and the Baltimore City Female Taskforce invite you to attend

The Street Law Program

This nationally recognized youth advocacy program aims to:

- Enhance participants understanding of the law
 - Teach self-advocacy skills
- Train attendees as “Street Law” workshop leaders

Presenter: Professor Alycia M. Guichard
Director of the New Jersey Fellow Street Law Program
Rutgers University School of Law, Newark, N.J.

Date & Time: Friday, October 1st 2010 from 8:30AM-3:00PM
Continental Breakfast starts at 8:30AM

Place: Towson University
University Union – Chesapeake Rooms 1&2

RSVP: Please RSVP by Friday, September 24th
Lisa Pressman, Administrative Assistant
Women’s Studies Department
(410) 704-2660 lpresman@towson.edu

Lunch available at any of the three dining areas in University Union or at the Berkshire Hotel (only a 10 minute walk)

Map of the campus at:

http://new.towson.edu/designcenter/images/Campusmap_COLOR.pdf